(a) for a beneficiary that is identified as a specifically named natural or legal person or legal arrangement, taking the name of the person; and (b) for a beneficiary that is designated by characteristics or by class or by other means, obtaining sufficient information concerning the beneficiary to satisfy the person carrying out relevant financial business that it will be able to establish the identity of the beneficiary at the time of the pay out; and (c) for a beneficiary under paragraph (a) or (b), verifying the identity of the beneficiary.

14. Beneficiary as risk factor 14. A person carrying out relevant financial business shall include the beneficiary of a life insurance policy as a relevant risk factor in determining whether enhanced customer due diligence measures are applicable pursuant to Part VI.

15. Verification of identity of customer and beneficial owner 15. (1) A person carrying out relevant financial business shall verify the identity of the customer and beneficial owner before or during the course of establishing a business relationship or conducting transactions for one-off customers. (2) If permitted by these Regulations, the person may complete verification after the establishment of the business relationship, provided that (a) this occurs as soon as reasonably practicable; (b) this is essential not to interrupt the normal conduct of business; and (c) the money laundering or terrorist financing risks are effectively managed.

16. Adoption of risk management procedures 16. A person carrying out relevant financial business shall adopt risk management procedures concerning the conditions under which a customer may utilise the business relationship prior to verification.

17. Duty to perform enhanced due diligence 17. A person carrying out relevant financial business shall perform enhanced due diligence where the money laundering or terrorist financing risks are higher pursuant to Part VI.

17A. Considerations for applying customer due diligence 17A. A person carrying out relevant financial business shall apply customer due diligence requirements to existing customers on the basis of materiality and risk, and conduct due diligence on such existing relationships at appropriate times, taking into account whether and when customer due diligence measures have been previously undertaken and the adequacy of the data obtained. Regulation 18 Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 26 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c 18. Obligation where unable to comply with customer due diligence 18. Where a person carrying out relevant financial business is unable to obtain information required by these Regulations to satisfy relevant customer due diligence measures (a) the person shall (i) not open the account, commence business relations or perform the transaction; or (ii) terminate the business relationship; and (b) the person shall consider making a suspicious activity report in relation to the customer. 19.

When to file suspicious activity report 19. Where a person carrying out relevant financial business (a) forms a suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing; and (b) reasonably believes that satisfying ongoing customer due diligence requirements of these Regulations for a customer or customer due diligence requirements of these Regulations for an applicant for business will tip-off a customer or an applicant for business, the person shall not complete the customer due diligence requirements of these Regulations but shall file a suspicious activity report. 20. Identification procedures - supplementary provisions 20. (1) For the purpose of these Regulations, evidence of the identity of an applicant for business is satisfactory if (a) the evidence is reasonably capable of establishing that the applicant for business is the person the applicant for business claims to be; and (b) the person who obtains the evidence is satisfied, in accordance with the procedures maintained under these Regulations in relation to the relevant financial business concerned, that it does establish that fact. (2) Where a person who is required to comply with regulation 5 is dissatisfied as to the veracity or accuracy of any evidence of identity, the person shall obtain such additional evidence of identity as shall ensure that that person is satisfied or that the evidence collected meets the requirements of these Regulations. (3) Where a person carrying out relevant financial business is determining whether the evidence of identity in relation to a customer or applicant for business is satisfactory for a business relationship or a one-off transaction the person shall consider (a) the nature of the business relationship or one-off transaction concerned; Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 21 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 27 (b) the geographical locations of the parties to the business relationship or one-off transaction; (c) whether it is practical to obtain the evidence of identity before commitments are entered into between the parties to the business relationship or the one-off transaction or before money is exchanged between the parties to the business relationship or one-off transaction; and (d) the earliest stage before the business relationship is formed or the one-off transaction is completed at which there are reasonable grounds for believing that the total amount payable by a customer or an applicant for business is fifteen thousand dollars or more where (i) in respect of any one-off transaction, payment is to be made by or to the customer or applicant for business of the amount of fifteen thousand dollars or more; (ii) in respect of two or more transactions that appear to be one-off transactions it appears at the outset to the person (A) that the transactions are linked; and (B) that the total amount, in respect of all of the transactions, which is payable by or to the customer or applicant for business is fifteen thousand dollars or more; or (iii) at any later stage, it comes to the attention of the person that subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (d) are satisfied. (4) The simplified customer due diligence measures permitted in Part V shall not be applied to any business relationship or one-off transaction where a person required to comply with regulation 5(a) has reasonable grounds to believe that the business relationship or one-off transaction presents a higher risk of money laundering or terrorist financing. PART V - Simplified Customer Due Diligence 21. Simplified customer due diligence application 21. (1) Notwithstanding Part IV, a person carrying out relevant financial business may apply simplified customer due diligence measures under this Part where it has identified and assessed a low level of risk in accordance with regulation 8. (1A) The simplified customer due diligence measures applied under paragraph (1) shall be commensurate with the lower risk factors identified in the risk assessment carried out in accordance with regulation 8. (2) Where a person carrying out relevant financial business finds that there is a low level of risk, the person's finding as to risk is only valid if the finding is Regulation 22 Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 28 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c consistent with the findings of the national risk assessment or the Supervisory Authority, whichever is most recently issued. (3) Nothing in this Part applies where, a person carrying out relevant financial business knows, suspects, or has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting that a customer or an applicant for business is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing or that the transaction being conducted by the customer or applicant for business is being carried out on behalf of another person engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing. (4) For the purpose of this regulation national risk assessment means the report by the Anti-Money Laundering Steering Group or any other body designated in writing by the Cabinet in accordance with the Law, which examines money laundering, terrorist financing and proliferation financing in the Islands. 22.

Acceptable applicants 22. (1) Customer due diligence procedures under Part IV regarding verification of the identity of a customer or an applicant for business are not required where (a) the identity of the customer or applicant for business is known to the person carrying out relevant financial business; (b) the person carrying out relevant financial business knows the nature and intended purpose of the business relationship or one-off transaction; (c) the person carrying out relevant financial business has not identified any suspicious activity; and (d) the customer or applicant for business is a person who is (i) required to comply with regulation 5 or is a majority-owned subsidiary of the relevant financial business; (ii) a central or local government organisation, statutory body or agency of government, in a country assessed by the person carrying out relevant financial business as having a low degree of risk of money laundering and terrorist financing; (iii) acting in the course of a business or is a majority-owned subsidiary of the business in relation to which an overseas regulatory authority exercises regulatory functions and is based or incorporated in, or formed under the law of, a country assessed by the person carrying out relevant financial business as having a low degree of risk of money laundering and terrorist financing; (iv) a company, that is listed on a recognised stock exchange and subject to disclosure requirements which impose requirements to ensure adequate transparency of beneficial ownership, or majority-owned subsidiary of such a company; or Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 23 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 29 (v) a pension fund for a professional association, trade union or is acting on behalf of employees of an entity referred to in sub-paragraphs (i) to (iv). (2) A person carrying out relevant financial business shall evidence in writing the basis for its determination of the applicability of paragraph (1) to the customer or applicant for business. 23. Payments delivered in person or electronically 23.

(1) Where a person carrying out relevant financial business has assessed a low level of risk and has identified a customer or an applicant for business and the beneficial owner, where applicable and has no reason to doubt those identities, and (a) the circumstances are such that payment is to be made by the customer or applicant for business; and (b) it is reasonable in all the circumstances (i) for payment to be delivered by post or in person or by electronic means to transfer funds; or (ii) for the details of the payment to be delivered by post or in person, to be confirmed via telephone or other electronic means, then subject to paragraph (2) verification of the identity of a customer or an applicant for business is not required at the time of receipt of payment if the payment is debited from an account held in the name of the customer or applicant for business at a licensee under the Banks and Trust Companies Act (2021 Revision) or at a bank that is regulated in and either based or incorporated in or formed under the laws of, a country assessed by the person carrying out relevant financial business as having a low degree of risk of money laundering and terrorist financing, whether the account is held by the customer or the applicant for business solely or jointly. (2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply (a) if the circumstances of the payment give rise to knowledge, suspicion, or reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting that the customer or the applicant for business is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing or that the transaction is carried out on behalf of another person engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing; (b) if the payment is made by a person for the purpose of opening a relevant account with a licensee under the Banks and Trust Companies Act (2021 Revision); and (c) in relation to a customer or an applicant for business when onward payment is to be made to the customer or the applicant for business or any other person, Regulation 24 Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 30 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c and the verification of the identity of the customer or the applicant for business is required to be obtained before payment of any proceeds, unless by operation of law payment of the proceeds is to be made to a person for whom a court is required to adjudicate payment. (3) For the purpose of paragraph (1)(b), it is immaterial whether the payment or the details of the payment are delivered by post or in person to a person who is required to comply with regulation 5 or to another person acting on that person's behalf. 24. Identification procedures - transactions on behalf of another 24. (1) This regulation applies where in relation to a person who is required to comply with regulation 5, an applicant for business is or appears to be acting as an agent or nominee for a principal. (2) A person carrying out relevant financial business is required to satisfy the customer due diligence requirements under Part IV in respect of the verification of the identity of an applicant for business unless (a) the applicant for business falls within one of the categories under regulation 22(d); and (b) a written assurance has been provided by the applicant for business which confirms (i) that the applicant for business has identified and verified the identity of the principal, and the beneficial owner, where applicable, on whose behalf the applicant for business acts and under procedures maintained by the applicant for business; (ii) the nature and intended purpose of the business relationship; (iii) that the applicant for business has identified the source of funds of the principal; and (iv) that the applicant for business shall make available on request and without delay copies of any identification and verification data or information and relevant documents obtained by the applicant for business after satisfying the requirements of customer due diligence in respect of the principal and the beneficial owner. (3) A person who is required to comply with regulation 5 and who relies on a written assurance under paragraph (2) is liable for any failure of the applicant for business to obtain and record satisfactory evidence of the identity of the principal or beneficial owner or to make the same available on request and without delay. Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 25 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 31 25. Eligible introducer 25. (1) A person carrying out relevant financial business is not required to verify the identity of an applicant for business, or the beneficial owner, if applicable, in accordance with Part IV where a business relationship is formed or a one-off transaction is carried out with or for an applicant for business pursuant to an introduction effected by a person who falls within one of the categories under regulation 22(1)(d) and who, upon that introduction, provides a written assurance to the person carrying out relevant financial business which confirms (a) the identity of the applicant for business, and the identity of the beneficial owner, if applicable, of the applicant for business; (b) the nature and intended purpose of the business relationship; (c) that the introducer has identified and verified the identity of the applicant for business, and, where required, the beneficial owner of the applicant for business, under procedures maintained by the introducer in accordance with applicable laws; (d) that the introducer has identified the source of the funds of the applicant for business; (da) that the introducer (i) is supervised or monitored by a Supervisory Authority or overseas regulatory authority; and (ii) has measures in place, for compliance with customer due diligence and record keeping requirements; and (e) that the introducer shall make available on request and without delay copies of identification and verification data and any other relevant documentation relating to customer due diligence requirements in respect of the applicant for business and, where applicable, the beneficial owner of the applicant for business. (2) A person carrying out relevant financial business who relies on an introduction effected under paragraph (1) in respect of an applicant for business, is liable for any failure of the introducer to obtain and record satisfactory identification and verification documentation, or to make the same available on request and without delay. (3) In this regulation, the ultimate responsibility for compliance with the customer due diligence requirements set out under Part IV is that of the person carrying out relevant financial business who relies on an introduction effected under paragraph (1).

Where enhanced customer due diligence is unable to be performed where it is required, a person carrying out relevant financial business shall follow the procedures in regulation 18. 29. Enhanced customer due diligence at payout 29. In relation to insurance business, where a person carrying out relevant financial business determines that carrying out relevant financial business with a beneficiary presents a higher risk, the person shall perform enhanced customer due diligence including reasonable measures to identify and verify the identity of the beneficial owner of the beneficiary, where applicable, at the time of pay out. PART VII - Politically Exposed Persons 30. Additional requirements - politically exposed persons 30. (1) A person carrying out relevant financial business shall in addition to satisfying customer due diligence requirements shall under these Regulations (a) put in place risk management systems to determine whether a person or beneficial owner with whom that person has a business relationship is a politically exposed person, family member or close associate; (b) ensure that the risk management procedures under subparagraph (a) (i) contain as a component, procedures for requiring that senior management approval be obtained before establishing or continuing a business relationship with a politically exposed person or a family member or close associate; (ii) take reasonable measures to establish the source of wealth and the source of funds of a person involved in a business relationship and a beneficial owner identified as a politically exposed person or a family member or close associate; and (iii) contain as a component, monitoring of the business relationship with the politically exposed person or a family member or close associate. (2) In the case of a life insurance policy, a person carrying out relevant financial business shall take reasonable measures, no later than at the time of payout (a) to determine whether the beneficiary and where applicable the beneficial owner of the beneficiary is a politically exposed person; Regulation 31 Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 34 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (b) that senior management is informed before pay-out of the policy proceeds; and (c) to conduct enhanced scrutiny on the whole business relationship with the policy holder and if necessary, to consider making a suspicious activity report. PART VIII - Record-Keeping Procedures 31. Record-keeping procedures 31. (1) Record-keeping procedures maintained by a person carrying out relevant financial business are in accordance with this regulation if the procedures require the following records to be kept as follows (a) in relation to a business relationship that is formed or one-off transaction that is carried out, a record that indicates the nature of evidence of customer due diligence obtained under procedures maintained in accordance with Part IV (i) comprises a copy of the evidence; (ii) provides such information as would enable a copy of it to be obtained; or (iii) where it is not reasonably practicable to comply with sub- subparagraph (i) or (ii), that provides sufficient information to enable the details of a person s identity contained in the relevant evidence to be re-obtained; (b) a record comprising account files and business correspondence, and results of any analysis undertaken, for at least five years following the termination of the business relationship or after the date of the one-off transaction; and (c) a record containing details relating to all transactions carried out by the person carrying out relevant financial business, which should be sufficient to permit reconstruction of individual transactions so as to provide, if necessary, evidence for prosecution of criminal activity. (2) A person carrying out relevant financial business shall ensure that all customer due diligence information and transaction records are available without delay upon request by competent authorities. (3) For the purpose of paragraph (1) and subject to paragraph (4), the period for which the records prescribed shall be kept is at least five years commencing with (a) in relation to the records described in paragraph (1)(a), the date on which the relevant business was completed within the meaning of paragraph (5); Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 31 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 35 (b) in relation to the records described in paragraph (1)(b), either the date on which the relevant business was completed within the meaning of paragraph (5) or the date on which all activities taking place in the course of the transaction in question were completed; and (c) in relation to the records described in paragraph (1)(c), the date on which all activities taking place in the course of the transaction in question were completed. (4) Where a person who is required to comply with regulation 5 (a) forms a business relationship or carries out a one-off transaction with another person; (b) has reasonable grounds for believing that a person under paragraph (a) has become insolvent; and (c) after forming a belief under paragraph (b), makes an attempt to recover all or part of the amount of any debt payable to the person which has fallen due by the person under paragraph (b), the period for which records under paragraph (1) are to be kept is at least five years commencing with the date on which the first attempt is made. (5) For the purpose of paragraph (3)(a) or (b), the date on which relevant financial business is completed is (a) the date of the ending of the business relationship in respect of whose formation the record under paragraph (1)(a) or (b) was compiled; (b) the date of completion of all activities taking place in the course of the one-off transaction in respect of which the record under paragraph (1)(a) or (b) was compiled where (i) in respect of any one-off transaction, a person carrying out relevant financial business knows, suspects, or has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting that the customer is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing or that the transaction is carried out on behalf of another person engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing; or (ii) in respect of any one-off transaction, payment is to be made by or to the applicant for business of the amount of fifteen thousand dollars or more; or (c) the date of the completion of all activities taking place in the course of the last one-off transaction in respect of which the record under paragraph (1)(a) or (b) was compiled where (i) in respect of two or more one-off transactions (aa) it appears at the outset to a person carrying out relevant financial business Regulation 32 Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 36 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (i) that the transactions are linked; and (ii) that the total amount, in respect of all of the transactions, which is payable by or to the applicant for business is fifteen thousand dollars or more; or (bb) at any later stage, it comes to the attention of such a person that subparagraphs (aa)(i) and (ii) are satisfied. 32. Record-keeping procedures - supplementary provisions 32. (1) For the purpose of regulation 31(4)(b), a person is considered insolvent if (a) the person has been adjudged bankrupt or has made a composition or arrangement with that person's creditors; (b) the person has died and the person's estate falls to be administered in accordance with an order under section 66 of the Bankruptcy Act (1997 Revision); or (c) a winding up order or an administration order has been made or a resolution for voluntary winding up has been passed with respect to the person, or a receiver or manager of the person's undertaking has been duly appointed, or possession has been taken, by or on behalf of the holders of any debentures secured by a floating charge, of any property of the person comprised in or subject to the charge, or a voluntary arrangement has been sanctioned under section 86 of the Companies Act (2023 Revision). (2) Where a person required to comply with regulation 5 (a) is an appointed representative; and (b) is not (i) a licensee under the Banks and Trust Companies Act (2021 Revision); (ii) a licensee under the Insurance Act, 2010 [Law 32 of 2010]; (iii) a licensed mutual fund administrator under the Mutual Funds Act (2020 Revision); or (iv) the holder of a licence under the Companies Management Act (2021 Revision), it is the responsibility of the principal of the person to ensure that record-keeping procedures in accordance with regulation 31 are maintained in respect of any relevant financial business carried out by the appointed representative which is investment business carried on by the person for which the principal has accepted responsibility. (3) In this regulation appointed representative means a person (a) who is employed by another person under a contract for services which Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 33 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 37 (i) requires or permits the person to carry out relevant financial business and either prohibits the person from giving advice about entering into investment agreements with persons other than the person's principal, or enables the person's principal to impose such a restriction or to restrict or prohibit the kinds of advice which the person may give; or (ii) either prohibits the person from procuring persons to enter into investment agreements with persons other than the person's principal, or enables the person's principal to impose such a prohibition or to restrict the kinds of investment to which the agreements may relate or the other persons with whom they may be entered into; and (b) who has accepted responsibility in writing for carrying on the whole or part of a relevant financial business.

PART IX - Money Laundering Reporting Officer 33.

Appointment of the Money Laundering Reporting Officer 33. (1) A person carrying out relevant financial business shall for the purpose of securing compliance with any requirement set out in Part IV of the Law, designate a person employed at managerial level as the Money Laundering Reporting Officer. (2) A person carrying out relevant financial business shall designate a manager or official employed at managerial level as an alternate for the Money Laundering Reporting Officer who shall be referred to as the Deputy Money Laundering Reporting Officer and who shall in the absence of the Money Laundering Reporting Officer, discharge the functions of the Money Laundering Reporting Officer.

34. Internal reporting procedures 34. Internal reporting procedures maintained by a person are in accordance with this regulation if the procedures include provisions (a) identifying the Money Laundering Reporting Officer and specifying that the Money Laundering Reporting Officer is the person to whom a report is to be made of any information or other matter which comes to the attention of a person carrying out relevant financial business and which, in the opinion of the person, gives rise to (i) a knowledge or suspicion or reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting that another person is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing; or Regulation 35 Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 38 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (ii) a knowledge or suspicion or reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting that the transaction or attempted transaction relates to money laundering or terrorist financing; (b) requiring that a report under subparagraph (a) be considered in light of all other relevant information by the Money Laundering Reporting Officer, or by the Deputy Money Laundering Reporting Officer, for the purpose of determining whether or not the information or other matter contained in the report gives rise to such a knowledge or suspicion; (c) for a person charged with considering a report in accordance with subparagraph (b) to have access to other information which may be of assistance to the person and which is available to the person who is responsible for maintaining the internal reporting procedures concerned; and (d) for ensuring that any information or other matter contained in a report is disclosed to the Financial Reporting Authority where the person who has considered the report under subparagraph (b)

(i) knows or has reasonable cause to suspect that another person is engaged in money laundering other than terrorist financing; or (ii) knows, suspects or has reasonable cause to suspect that another person is engaged in terrorist financing. PART X - Identification and record-keeping requirements relating to Wire Transfers 35. Application of this Part 35. (1) This Part applies to transfers of funds, in any currency, which are sent or received by a payment service provider carrying on business in or from within the Islands. (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) (a) this Part does not apply to transfers of funds carried out using a credit or debit card, if (i) the payee has an agreement with the payment service provider permitting payment for the provision of goods and services; and (ii) a unique identifier, allowing the transaction to be traced back to the payer, accompanies such transfer of funds; and (b) this Part does not apply to transfers of funds (i) where the payer withdraws cash from the payer's own account; (ii) where there is a debit transfer authorisation between two parties permitting payments between them through accounts, if a unique Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 36 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 39 identifier accompanies the transfer of funds, enabling the person to be traced back; (iii) where truncated cheques are used; (iv) for fines, duties or other levies within the Islands; or (v) where both the payer and the payee are payment service providers acting on their own behalf. (3) This Part does not apply to transfers of virtual assets. 36. Information accompanying transfers of funds and record-keeping 36. (1) Subject to regulation 37, a payment service provider of a payer shall ensure that transfers of funds are accompanied by complete information on the payer. (2) For the purpose of this Part, complete information on a payer shall include (a) the payer's name; (b) the payer's account number, or where the account number is not available, a unique identifier which allows the transaction to be traced back to the payer; and (c) one of the following (i) the payer's address; (ii) the number of a Government-issued document evidencing the payer's identity; (iii) the payer's customer identification number; or (iv) the payer's date and place of birth. (3) The payment service provider of the payer shall, before transferring the funds, verify the complete information on the payer on the basis of documents, data or information that meet the requirements of regulation 20(1). (4) A payment service provider of the payer shall collect beneficiary or payee information including the name and account number or unique transaction reference in order to facilitate the traceability of the transaction. (5) In the case of transfers of funds from an account, verification may be deemed to have taken place if (a) the payer's account is held at a licensee under the Banks and Trust Companies Act (2021 Revision); or (b) the payer is a person who is required to comply with regulation 5. (6) The payment service provider of the payer shall, for five years, keep records of complete information on the payer and payee which accompanies transfers of funds. Regulation 37 Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 40 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c 37. Transfers of funds within the Islands 37. Where both the payment service provider of the payer and the payment service provider of the payee are situated in the Islands, transfers of funds shall be required to be accompanied only by the account number of the payer or a unique identifier allowing the transaction to be traced back to the payer; but, if requested by the payment service provider of the payee, the payment service provider of the payer shall make available to the payment service provider of the payee complete information on the payer, within three working days of receiving that request. 38. Batch file transfers 38. (1) For batch file transfers from a single payer where the payment service providers of the payees are situated outside the Islands, regulation 36(1) shall not apply to the individual transfers bundled together, if the batch file contains that information about the payer and the individual transfers carry the account number of the payer or a unique identifier. (2) A batch file shall contain the name, account number or unique identifier number of a payee or beneficiary that is traceable in the payee country. 39. Obligations of payment service provider of payee 39. The payment service provider of a payee shall have effective procedures in place in order to detect whether, in the messaging or payment and settlement system used to effect a transfer of funds, the information required under regulations 37, 38 and 47 is obtained in accordance with these Regulations. 40. Transfers of funds with missing or incomplete information about the payer 40. (1) The payment service provider of a payer shall not execute wire transfers where the payment service provider is unable to collect and maintain information on the payer and payee as required under regulation 36, 37 and 38(1). (2) A payment service provider of the payee shall have effective systems in place to detect missing required information on both the payer and payee. (3) Where the payment service provider of the payee detects, when receiving transfers of funds, that information on the payer required under this Part is missing or incomplete the payment service provider shall either reject the transfer or request complete information on the payer; and, in any event, the payment service provider of the payee shall comply with the Law, the Terrorism Act (2018 Revision) and these Regulations. (4) A beneficiary or payee financial institution shall verify the identity of payee information and shall, for five years, keep records of the information. (5) A payment service provider of a payee shall adopt risk-based policies and procedures for determining when to execute, reject or suspend a wire transfer Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 41 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 41 where the required payer or payee information is incomplete and the resulting procedures to be applied. (6) Where a payment service provider regularly fails to supply the required information on the payer, the payment service provider of the payee shall adopt reasonable measures to rectify noncompliance with these Regulations, before (a) rejecting any future transfers of funds from that payment service provider; (b) restricting its business relationship with that payment service provider; or (c) terminating its business relationship with that payment service provider, and the payment service provider of the payee shall report to the Financial Reporting Authority and to the relevant Supervisory Authority any such decision to restrict or terminate its business relationship with that payment service provider. 41. Risk-based assessment 41. The payment service provider of the payee shall consider incomplete information about the payer as a factor in assessing whether the transfer of funds, or any related transaction, is suspicious, and whether the suspicion should be reported to the Financial Reporting Authority, in accordance with the Law and these Regulations. 42. Record-keeping by payment service provider of payee 42. The payment service provider of the payee shall, for five years, keep records of any information received on the payer. 43. Information accompanying a transfer of funds 43. Intermediary payment service providers shall ensure that all information received on the payer and the payee that accompanies a transfer of funds is kept with the transfer. 44.

Straight-through processing 44. An intermediary payment service provider shall take reasonable measures, which are consistent with straight-through processing, to identify cross-border transfers that lack required payer or payee information and shall adopt risk-based policies and procedures for determining when to execute, reject or suspend a wire transfer where the required payer or payee information is incomplete and the resulting procedures to be applied.

45. Obligation to comply with requirements 45. A money services licensee shall comply with all of the relevant requirements under this Part in the countries in which they operate, directly or through the agents of the licensee.

46. Obligation to file suspicious activity report 46. A money services licensee, that controls both the ordering institution and the beneficiary institution, shall (a) consider the information from both the ordering institution and the beneficiary institution to determine whether a suspicious activity report should be filed; and (b) further to subparagraph (a) file the suspicious activity report in the country from or to which the suspicious wire transfer originated or was destined, respectively and make relevant transaction information available to the Financial Reporting Authority and the relevant authorities in the country.

47. Technical limitations 47. (1) This regulation applies where the payment service provider of the payer is situated outside the Islands and the intermediary payment service provider is situated within the Islands, in respect of transfers of funds by the intermediary payment service provider within the Islands. (2) Subject to paragraph (3), the intermediary payment service provider may use a payment system with technical limitations which prevent information on the payer from accompanying the transfer of funds to send transfers of funds to the payment service provider of the payee. (3) Where the intermediary payment service provider receives a transfer of funds with incomplete information about the payer as required under this Part, the intermediary payment service provider shall only use a payment system with technical limitations if the intermediary payment service provider is able to provide the payment service provider of the payee, with the information about the payer, using a manner of communication accepted by, or agreed between, both payment service providers. (4) Where the intermediary payment service provider uses a payment system with technical limitations, the intermediary payment service provider shall, upon request from the payment service provider of the payee, make available to the payment service provider of the payee all the information on the payer which the intermediary payment service provider has received, irrespective of whether the information is complete or not, within three working days of the date of receiving that request. (5) In the cases referred to in paragraphs (2) and (3), the intermediary payment service provider shall, for five years, keep records of all information received.

48. Cooperation 48. A payment service provider shall respond fully and without delay to enquiries from the Reporting Authority concerning the information about the payer accompanying transfers of funds and corresponding records.

49B. Application of this Part
49B. This Part applies to transfers of virtual assets.

49C. Transfers of virtual assets to a beneficiary
49C. (1) An originating virtual asset service provider shall, when conducting a transfer of virtual assets to a beneficiary, collect and record the following information (a) the name of the originator and the beneficiary; (b) where an account is used to process the transfer of virtual assets by (i) the originator, the account number of the originator; or (ii) the beneficiary, the account number of the beneficiary; (c) the address of the originator, the number of a Government-issued document evidencing the originator's identity or the originator's customer identification number or date and place of birth; and (d) where an account is not used to process the transfer of virtual assets, the unique transaction reference number that permits traceability of the transaction. (2) An originating virtual asset service provider shall, before conducting the transfer of virtual assets, verify the information on the originator under paragraph (1) on the basis of documents, data or information that meet the requirements of regulation 20(1). (3) An originating virtual asset service provider shall provide the information under paragraph (1) to the beneficiary virtual asset service provider or obliged entity simultaneously or concurrently with the transfer of virtual assets. (4) An originating virtual asset service provider may provide the information under paragraph (1) to the beneficiary virtual asset service provider or obliged entity directly by attaching the information to the transfer of virtual assets or providing the information indirectly. (5) An originating virtual asset service provider shall ensure that transfers of virtual assets are conducted using a system which prevents the unauthorised disclosure of the information under paragraph (1) to a person other than the originating virtual asset service provider, the beneficiary virtual asset service provider or the obliged entity. (6) An originating virtual asset service provider shall, for at least five years, keep records of complete information on the originator and beneficiary which accompanies each transfer of virtual assets.

49D. Obligations of a beneficiary virtual asset service provider
49D. (1) A beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall, on receipt of a transfer of virtual assets, collect and record the following information (a) the name of the originator and the beneficiary; (b) where an account is used to process the transfer of virtual assets by (i) the originator, the account number of the originator; or (ii) the beneficiary, the account number of the beneficiary; (c) the address of the beneficiary, the number of a Government-issued document evidencing the beneficiary's identity or the beneficiary's customer identification number or date and place of birth; and (d) where an account is not used to process the transfer of virtual assets, the unique transaction reference number that permits traceability of the transaction. (2) A beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall verify the accuracy of information on the beneficiary under paragraph (1) on the basis of documents, data or information that meets the requirements of regulation 20(1). (3) A beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall, for at least five years, keep records of complete information on the originator and beneficiary which accompanies each transfer of virtual assets.

49E. Duty to produce information 49E. (1) A competent authority may, by notice in writing, require an originating virtual asset service provider or a beneficiary virtual asset service provider to provide information in respect of a transfer of virtual assets carried out under this Part. (2) An originating virtual asset service provider or a beneficiary virtual asset service provider which receives a notice under paragraph (1) shall comply with that notice within the period and in the manner specified in the notice.

49F. Batch file transfers of virtual assets 49F. (1) For batch file transfers of virtual assets from a single originator, regulation 49C(1) shall not apply to the individual transfers of virtual assets bundled together if (a) the batch file contains (i) the name of the originator; (ii) where an account is used to process the transfer of virtual assets by the originator, the account number of the originator; (iii) the address of the originator, the number of a Government-issued document evidencing the originator's identity or the originator's customer identification number or date and place of birth; and (b) the individual transfers of virtual assets carry the account number of the originator or a unique identifier. (2) A batch file shall contain the name, account number or unique identifier of the beneficiary that is traceable in the beneficiary country.

49G. Obligations of a beneficiary virtual asset service provider 49G. A beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall have effective procedures in place in order to detect whether, in the messaging or payment and settlement system or equivalent system used to effect a transfer of virtual assets, the information required under regulations 49C(1), 49F and 49N is obtained in accordance with these Regulations.

49H. Transfers of virtual assets with missing or incomplete information about the originator 49H. (1) An originating virtual asset service provider shall not execute transfers of virtual assets where the originating virtual asset service provider is unable to collect and maintain information on the originator and beneficiary as required under regulation 49C(1) and 49F. (2) A beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall have effective systems in place to detect missing required information on both the originator and beneficiary. (3) Where a beneficiary virtual asset service provider detects, when receiving transfers of virtual assets, that information on the originator required under this Part is missing or incomplete, the beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall either reject the transfer of virtual assets or request complete information on the originator. (4) A beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall adopt risk-based policies and procedures for determining (a) whether to execute, reject or suspend a transfer of virtual assets; and (b) the resulting procedures to be applied, where the required originator or beneficiary information is incomplete. (5) Where an originating virtual asset service provider regularly fails to supply the required information on the originator, the beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall adopt reasonable measures to rectify noncompliance with these Regulations before (a) rejecting any future transfers of virtual assets from that originating virtual asset service provider; (b) restricting its business relationship with that originating virtual asset service provider; or (c) terminating its business relationship with that originating virtual asset service provider, and the beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall report to the Financial

Reporting Authority and to the relevant Supervisory Authority any such decision to restrict or terminate its business relationship with that originating virtual asset service provider. Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 49I c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 47 49I. Assessment and reporting of suspicious transfers of virtual assets 49I. A beneficiary virtual asset service provider shall consider incomplete information about the originator as a factor in assessing whether a transfer of virtual assets, or any related transaction, is suspicious and where it is determined that the transaction is suspicious, the suspicious transaction shall be reported to the Financial Reporting Authority in accordance with the Law. 49J. Information accompanying a transfer of virtual assets 49J. An intermediary virtual asset service provider which participates in a transfer of virtual assets shall ensure that all information received on the originator and the beneficiary that accompanies a transfer of virtual assets is kept with the transfer of virtual assets. 49K. Straight-through processing of transfers of virtual assets 49K. An intermediary virtual asset service provider shall (a) take reasonable measures, which are consistent with straight-through processing, to identify transfers of virtual assets that lack required originator or beneficiary information; and (b) adopt risk-based policies and procedures for determining (i) when to execute, reject or suspend a transfer of virtual assets; and (ii) the resulting procedures to be applied, where the required originator or beneficiary information is incomplete. 49L. Obligation of a virtual asset service provider to comply with requirements 49L. A virtual asset service provider shall comply with all of the relevant requirements under this Part in the countries in which they operate, either directly or through the agents of the virtual asset service provider. 49M. Obligation of a virtual asset service provider to file suspicious activity report 49M. A virtual asset service provider, that controls both the originating virtual asset service provider and the beneficiary virtual asset service provider, shall (a) consider the information from both the originating virtual asset service provider and the beneficiary virtual asset service provider to determine whether a suspicious activity report should be filed; and (b) further to paragraph (a), file the suspicious activity report in the country from which the transfer of virtual assets originated or to which the transfer of virtual assets was destined and make relevant transaction information available to the Financial Reporting Authority and the relevant authorities in the country from which the transfer originated or to which it was destined. Regulation 49N Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 48 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c 49N. Technical limitations related to transfers of virtual assets 49N. Where technical limitations prevent an intermediary virtual asset service provider from sending the required originator or beneficiary information with the transfer of virtual assets, the intermediary virtual asset service provider shall keep a record of all the information received from the originating virtual asset service provider, obliged entity or other intermediary, for at least five years. 49O. Obligation to have risk-based policies 49O. An intermediary virtual asset service provider shall have risk-based policies and procedures for determining (a) when to execute, reject, or suspend a transfer of virtual assets lacking required originator or required beneficiary information; and (b) the appropriate follow-up action. 49P. Interpreting inconsistencies with other Parts 49P. Where there is an inconsistency between the provisions of this Part and any other provision of these Regulations, the provisions of this Part shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency. PART XI - Shell Banks and Correspondent Banks 50. Shell banks 50. A person carrying out relevant financial business to which regulation 5 applies and which is carried on by the person in or from the Islands, shall not form a business relationship, or carry out a one-off transaction, with a shell bank. 51. Correspondent banks

51. For the avoidance of doubt, a person carrying out relevant financial business shall not enter into or shall discontinue correspondent banking and other similar relationships with a shell bank and shall satisfy the person that respondent financial institutions do not permit their accounts to be used by shell banks. 52. Cross-border correspondent banking 52. In relation to cross-border correspondent banking and other similar relationships, a person carrying out relevant business, in addition to conducting customer due diligence procedures pursuant to these Regulations shall (a) collect information to understand the nature of a respondent institution's business and determine from publicly available information the reputation of the institution and the quality of supervision, including whether the institution has been subject to money laundering or terrorist financing investigation or regulatory action; Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 53 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 49 (b) assess the respondent institution's anti-money laundering and countering financing of terrorist controls; (c) obtain approval from senior management before establishing new correspondent relationships; and (d) clearly understand and document the respective responsibilities of each institution. 53. Payable-through accounts 53. With respect to payable-through accounts, a person carrying out relevant financial business shall be satisfied that the respondent bank (a) has performed customer due diligence obligations on its customers that have direct access to the accounts of the correspondent bank; and (b) is able to provide relevant customer due diligence information to the correspondent bank upon request. PART XIA - Disclosure requirements for persons carrying out relevant financial business 53A. Duty of a person carrying out relevant financial business to produce information 53A. (1) A Supervisory Authority may, by notice in writing, require a person carrying out relevant financial business to provide such documents, statements or any other information as the Supervisory Authority may reasonably require in connection with the exercise of its functions. (2) A person carrying out relevant financial business, who receives a notice under paragraph (1), shall comply with that notice within the period and in the manner specified in the notice. (3) A Supervisory Authority may, by notice in writing, require (a) a person carrying out relevant financial business; (b) a connected person; or (c) a person reasonably believed to have information relevant to an inquiry by the Supervisory Authority, to attend before the Supervisory Authority to answer such questions or provide such information as the Supervisory Authority may deem necessary in connection with its inquiry. (4) A person who is served a notice under paragraph (3) shall attend before the Supervisory Authority in accordance with the notice. Regulation 53B Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 50 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (5) In relation to information recorded otherwise than in legible form, the notice may require a copy of the information in legible form or in a form from which it can readily be produced in visible and legible form. (6) Information required to be provided to the Supervisory Authority under this regulation shall be provided in the English language and any information required in a notice under this regulation which is not in the English language shall be translated into the English language before being provided to the Supervisory Authority. (7) The production of a document does not affect any lien which a person has on the document. 53B. Failure to produce information 53B. (1) A person who fails to comply with a notice issued by a Supervisory Authority under regulation 53A contravenes these Regulations and is liable to the penalty prescribed under regulation 56 or the administrative penalties under paragraph (2). (2) Where a person fails to comply with a notice issued by a Supervisory Authority under regulation 53A (a) the Monetary Authority may impose an administrative fine in accordance with the Monetary Authority Act (2020 Revision) or regulations made thereunder; or (b) a Supervisory Authority other than the Monetary Authority may impose an administrative fine in accordance with these regulations.

53C. Requirement to share information

53C. (1) A Supervisory Authority, competent authority or government body may of its own volition or upon request by any other Supervisory Authority, competent authority or government body, share or provide any information required for the purpose of (a) assessing money laundering, terrorist financing and proliferation financing risks; or (b) discharging any function or exercising any power under the Law.

(2) Where a request is made to a Supervisory Authority, competent authority or government body for information in accordance with paragraph (1), the information shall be provided within a reasonable time from the date of receipt of the request.

(3) Where information is shared or provided in accordance with paragraph (1), the recipient of such information shall (a) only use the information for the purpose for which it was shared or provided; (b) only retain the information for as long as is necessary to carry out the purpose for which it was shared or provided; and (c) not disclose the information for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was shared or provided, without the prior consent of the competent authority or government body which shared or provided the information.

(4) Repealed by regulation 13 of the Anti-Money Laundering (Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations, 2019 (SL# 28 of 2019).

PART XIB Reporting requirements of Supervisory Authorities

53D. Supervisory authorities to submit annual report

53D. Every Supervisory Authority shall, no later than three months after the end of its financial year (a) submit to the Steering Group an annual report on its activities; and (b) publish the annual report in such detail and manner as it thinks appropriate.

53E. Contents of annual report

53E. An annual report under regulation 53D shall contain information with respect to (a) the number of persons under the supervision of the Supervisory Authority including the proportion of natural and legal persons; (b) the relevant financial business carried on by persons under the supervision of the Supervisory Authority and its methodology for risk-rating such persons; (c) the number of contraventions of the Regulations by persons under the supervision of the Supervisory Authority which the Supervisory Authority has identified; (d) the number of inspections of persons under its supervision for the purposes of the Regulations conducted by the Supervisory Authority; (e) the number and amount of fines imposed by the Supervisory Authority; (f) the number of times that the Supervisory Authority has exercised its enforcement powers; (g) the number of persons under the supervision of the Supervisory Authority who, following the exercise of enforcement powers by the Supervisory Authority, have contravened the requirements imposed by such enforcement measures; (h) the activities that the Supervisory Authority has engaged in to educate persons under its supervision with respect to their responsibilities under the Regulations;

c (i) anti-money laundering, combating terrorist financing, and combating proliferation financing training and development undertaken within the Supervisory Authority; (j) a summary of any money laundering, terrorist financing and proliferation financing risk assessments conducted for sectors under the supervision of the Supervisory Authority during the relevant period; and (k) any updates to the description of indications which may suggest that a transfer of criminal funds is taking place in the sectors under the supervision of the Supervisory Authority. PART XII - Disclosure Obligations of Supervisory Authorities 54. Disclosure - application of Part 54. (1) This Part applies to the Supervisory Authorities and to a minister or Official Member, in relation to any person carrying on relevant financial business, of the person's statutory or official functions. (2)

Notwithstanding paragraph (1) this Part does not apply to any disclosure of information to which Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Terrorism Act (2018 Revision) relates. 55. Disclosure obligation 55. (1) Subject to paragraph (2), where a Supervisory Authority, a minister or Official Member (a) obtains any information; and (b) is of the opinion that the information indicates that any person has or may have been engaged in money laundering, the Supervisory Authority, a minister or Official Member shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, disclose that information to the Financial Reporting Authority. (2) Where any person is a secondary recipient of information obtained by a Supervisory Authority, a minister or Official Member, and that person forms such an opinion as is mentioned in paragraph (1)(b), that person may disclose the information to the Financial Reporting Authority. (3) Where any person employed by a Supervisory Authority, appointed by a Supervisory Authority to act as that Supervisory Authority's agent, employed by any such agent or employed by the Government in the ministry or portfolio of a minister or Official Member Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision)

Regulation 55A c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 53 (a) obtains any information whilst acting in the course of any investigation, or discharging any functions, to which the person's appointment or authorisation relates; and (b) is of the opinion that the information indicates that a person has or may have been engaged in money laundering, that person shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, either disclose that information to the Financial Reporting Authority or disclose that information to the Supervisory Authority, minister or Official Member by whom the person was appointed or authorised. (4) Any disclosure made by virtue of paragraphs (1) to (3) shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction imposed by statute or otherwise. (5) Any information (a) which has been disclosed to the Financial Reporting Authority by virtue of paragraphs (1) to (4); and (b) which would, apart from paragraph (4), be subject to such a restriction as is mentioned in that paragraph, may be disclosed by the Financial Reporting Authority, or any person obtaining the information directly or indirectly from the Financial Reporting Authority, in connection with the investigation of any criminal offence or for the purpose of any criminal proceedings, but not otherwise. (6) In this regulation secondary recipient, in relation to information obtained by a Supervisory Authority, a minister or Official Member, means any person to whom that information has been passed by the Supervisory Authority, a Minister or Official member. Part XIIA - Designated Non-Financial Businesses and Professions Designation of DNFBPs and Supervisory Authorities 55A. Designated non-financial business and professions 55A. The following businesses and professions are designated as DNFBPs (a) real estate agents and brokers; (b) dealers in precious metals; (c) dealers in precious stones; (d) firms of accountants; (e) firms of attorneys at law; and Regulation 55B Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 54 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (f) any other business or profession for which a Supervisory Authority under regulation 55B is assigned, by Cabinet, under section 4(9) of the Law. 55B. Supervisory Authorities of DNFBPs 55B. The following bodies are designated as Supervisory Authorities of the following DNFBPs for the purposes of this Part (a) the Department of Commerce and Investment - for real estate agents and brokers, dealers in precious metals, dealers in precious stones and any other business or profession for which it has been designated the Supervisory Authority, by Cabinet, under section 4(9) of the Law; (b) the Cayman Islands Institute of Professional Accountants - for firms of accountants; and (c) the Cayman Islands Legal Practitioners Association - for firms of attorneys at law that engage in or assist other persons in the planning or execution of relevant financial business, or otherwise act for or on behalf of such persons in relevant financial business.

55C. Cooperation among Supervisory Authorities

55C. (1) Where there is more than one Supervisory Authority for a DNFBP, the Supervisory Authorities may agree that one of them will act as the Supervisory Authority for that DNFBP. (2) Where an agreement is made under paragraph (1), the Authority which has agreed to act as the Supervisory Authority shall notify the DNFBP or publish the agreement in such manner as it considers appropriate. (3) Where no agreement is made under paragraph (1), the Supervisory Authorities for a DNFBP shall cooperate in the performance of their functions under this Part. (4) Where natural or legal persons within a group structure are subject to supervision by different Supervisory Authorities, the Supervisory Authorities may cooperate with each other in the performance of their functions and shall consider any directives or recommendations of other authorities, made in relation to other persons in the group, in carrying out their supervisory responsibilities.

55D. Duties of Supervisory Authorities

55D. (1) A Supervisory Authority (a) shall effectively monitor every DNFBP for which it is designated if the DNFBP is conducting relevant financial business; (b) shall take necessary measures to ensure compliance by DNFBPs referred to in paragraph (a) with these Regulations; and (c) may issue guidance, directives and procedures to be followed by DNFBPs referred to in paragraph (a) in order to promote compliance with these Regulations. (2) Repealed by regulation 11 of the Anti-Money Laundering (Amendment) Regulations, 2020 (SL 2 of 2020).

55E. Duty to maintain DNFBP register

55E. (1) A Supervisory Authority shall establish and maintain, in such form as it may determine to be appropriate, a DNFBP Register of all DNFBPs for which it is designated Supervisory Authority under this Part. (1A) A Supervisory Authority may impose registration fees for the purpose of defraying the cost of establishing and maintaining the DNFBP Register and discharging its responsibilities under these Regulations. (1B) The fees imposed under paragraph (1A) shall be subject to the approval of Cabinet and published in the Gazette. (2) The DNFBP Register shall contain the following information in respect of each DNFBP (a) in the case of a body corporate, the name, country of incorporation, date of incorporation and registered office of the body corporate; (b) in the case of a partnership or limited liability partnership, the name, country of formation, date of formation and registered office of the partnership; (c) in the case of a person that is not a corporate body, partnership or limited liability partnership, the name and address of the person; (d) the principal business address of the person in the Cayman Islands and the person's telephone number and address, if any; (e) in the case of a DNFBP that is licensed or regulated (i) the type of licence held by the DNFBP; and (ii) the name and address of the applicable licensing body or regulator; (f) the relevant business for which the person is registered or licensed; (g) the date of registration and, if applicable, de-registration of the DNFBP; and (h) such other information as the Supervisory Authority considers appropriate. (3) The DNFBP Register and the information contained in any document filed with the Supervisory Authority may be kept in such manner as the Supervisory Authority considers appropriate, including either wholly or partly, by means of a device or facility that Regulation 55F Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 56 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (a) records or stores information magnetically, electronically or by other means; and (b) permits the information recorded or stored to be inspected and reproduced in legible and usable form. 55F. Requirement for registration 55F. (1) A person who carries on or intends to carry on business as a DNFBP in or from within the Islands shall

(a) submit to the Supervisory Authority designated for that DNFBP (i) a written declaration that the person carries on or intends to carry on business as a DNFBP; and (ii) subject to paragraph (2), the registration information required under regulation 55E(2); and (b) where applicable, pay the registration fee imposed by the Supervisory Authority under regulation 55E(1A). (2) A person is not required to submit the registration information under paragraph (1)(a)(ii) if the person who carries on or intends to carry on business as a DNFBP provides written consent to the relevant government body or any other competent authority which holds such information, to provide the information to the Supervisory Authority designated for that DNFBP. 55G. Cancellation of registration 55G.
(1) Subject to regulation 55I, a Supervisory Authority may cancel the registration of a DNFBP if (a) the DNFBP contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of these Regulations; (b) the person carrying on business as a DNFBP or a connected person in relation to that DNFBP is not, in the opinion of the Supervisory Authority, a fit and proper person as described in regulation 55H; or (c) the Supervisory Authority is satisfied that the DNFBP has ceased to carry on business or is a company which the Registrar has struck off the register of companies under section 156(1) of the Companies Act (2023 Revision). (2) A Supervisory Authority shall not cancel the registration of a DNFBP under paragraph (1)(a) unless, in the opinion of the Supervisory Authority (a) the breach cannot be adequately sanctioned by imposing an administrative fine; or (b) the contravention or failure to comply is so serious, egregious or frequent as to preclude the DNFBP from being permitted to continue to carry on relevant financial business in the Islands. Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 55H c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 57 55H. Fit and proper person test 55H. (1) In determining whether a person who carries on business as a DNFBP or a connected person is a fit and proper person, the Supervisory Authority designated for that DNFBP shall have regard to (a) the person's probity, competence and soundness of judgement for fulfilling the responsibilities of the position; (b) the diligence with which the person is fulfilling or likely to fulfil the responsibilities; and (c) whether the interests of the DNFBP are, or are likely to be, in any way threatened by the person holding the position. (2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), regard may be had to the previous conduct and activities in business or financial matters of the person in question and, in particular, to any evidence that the person has (a) committed an offence involving fraud or other dishonesty or violence; (b) contravened any provision made by or under any enactment designed for protecting members of the public against financial loss due to (i) dishonesty, incompetence or malpractice by persons concerned in the provision of services by the non-financial business or profession or the management of companies; or (ii) the conduct of discharged or undischarged bankrupts; (c) engaged in any business practices appearing to be deceitful or oppressive or otherwise improper (whether lawful or not) or which discredit the person's method of conducting business; and (d) engaged in or has been associated with any other business practices or otherwise acted in such a way as to cast doubt on the person's competence and soundness of judgement. 55I. Representations by DNFBP 55I. (1) Where a Supervisory Authority proposes to cancel the registration of a DNFBP, it shall give a warning notice to the DNFBP stating (a) the proposed date from which the cancellation is to take effect; (b) the reasons for its decision; and (c) the right of the DNFBP to make representations to the Supervisory Authority objecting to the cancellation, within a specified period of not less than thirty days. (2) After considering any representations made by the DNFBP, the Supervisory Authority shall decide within one month of the end of the period specified in paragraph (1)(c) whether to cancel the DNFBP's registration.

Regulation 55J Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 58 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c 55J. Notification of cancellation of registration 55J. (1) If the Supervisory Authority decides to cancel the registration of the DNFBP, it shall provide a notice of the decision, together with the reasons for the decision, to the person carrying on business as a DNFBP and to one of the following (a) the Trade and Business Licensing Board, if the person holds a licence granted under section 21 of the Trade and Business Licensing Act (2021 Revision) for carrying on that business; (b) the Council of the Cayman Islands Institute of Professional Accountants, if the person holds a licence granted under section 11 or 12 of the Accountants Act (2020 Revision) for carrying on that business; or (c) the Chief Justice, if the DNFBP is carried on by (i) a natural person admitted to practice as an attorney at law under the Legal Practitioners Act (2022 Revision); or (ii) a firm or recognised body holding an annual operational licence issued under section 13 of the Legal Practitioners Act (2022 Revision). (2) The notice provided to a licensing body or other authority under paragraphs (1)(a), (b) or (c) shall include a recommendation from the Supervisory Authority that the body or authority suspend, revoke or limit the DNFBP's licence in order to prevent it from carrying on relevant financial business in the Islands. Obligations of DNFBPs 55K. Repealed 55K. Repealed by regulation 4 of the Anti-Money Laundering (Amendment) Regulations, 2019 (SL 25 of 2019). 55L. Limitation 55L. (1) A person is not required to provide information or documents or to answer questions under regulation 53A(1) or (3) unless (a) the notice sets out the reasons why the Supervisory Authority requires the information; and (b) the information, documents or answers are reasonably required by the Supervisory Authority in the exercise of its responsibilities under this Part. (2) A person is not required under regulation 53A(1) or (3) to provide or produce information, or to answer questions, which the person would be entitled to refuse to provide, produce or answer on grounds of legal professional privilege Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 55M c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 59 in proceedings in the Grand Court, except that an attorney-at-law may be required to provide the name and address of the attorney's client. (3) Section 170 of the Law applies with appropriate modifications to statements made by a person in compliance with a duty imposed under regulation 53A(4) as the section applies to statements made by a relevant institution in response to a customer information order. 55M. Duty to allow site visits by Supervisory Authority 55M. (1) A person carrying on business as a DNFBP or a connected person in relation to the DNFBP shall, on request by the Supervisory Authority designated for that DNFBP, allow an officer or employee of the Supervisory Authority, on producing evidence of authority, to have access at any reasonable time to any premises being used in connection with the business of the DNFBP and shall allow the officer or employee (a) to enter and inspect the premises; (b) to observe the carrying on of business; (c) to inspect any recorded information found on the premises and to take copies of, or extracts from, any such information; and (d) to ask any person on the premises for an explanation of any recorded information or to state where it may be found. (2) A person is not required to allow access to premises under paragraph (1) unless the information sought by the officer or employee of the Supervisory Authority is reasonably required by the Supervisory Authority in the exercise of its functions under this Part.

55N. Failure to comply with information requirements 55N. (1) If, on an application made by a Supervisory Authority, it appears to the Grand Court that a person has failed to do something that they were required to do under regulation 53A(2) or (4) or 55M(1) the Court may make an order under this regulation. (2) An order under this regulation may require the person referred to in paragraph (1) (a) to do the thing that the person failed to do within such period as may be specified in the order; or (b) otherwise to take such steps to remedy the consequences of the failure as may be specified by the Court. (3) If the person referred to in paragraph (1) is a body corporate, a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons which is not a partnership, the order may require any officer of the body corporate, partnership or unincorporated body, who is Regulation 55O Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 60 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (wholly or partly) responsible for the failure to meet such costs of the application as are specified in the order. (4) In subsection (3), officer includes a director, secretary or senior executive of the body corporate, partnership or unincorporated body, regardless of job title.

55O. False or misleading information 55O. A person shall not, for any purpose of this Part (a) provide any information, make any representation or submit any document to a Supervisory Authority that the person knows to be false or materially misleading or does not believe to be true; or (b) recklessly provide any information, make any representation or submit any document to a Supervisory Authority that is false or materially misleading.

Restrictions on the Disclosure of Information by Supervisory Authorities 55P. Prohibition on disclosure of information 55P. (1) A person shall not disclose protected information without the consent of (a) the person from whom the information was obtained; and (b) if different, the person to whom the information relates. (2) In this regulation protected information (a) means information relating to the business or affairs of any person that is acquired by one of the following persons for the purposes of discharging the person's functions under the Law (i) the Supervisory Authority or one of its officers or employees; or (ii) a person acting under the authority of a DNFBP or an officer or employee of that person; but (b) does not include information that (i) is or has been available to the public; or (ii) is disclosed in a summary or in statistics expressed in a manner that does not enable the identity of particular persons to whom the information relates to be determined.

55Q. Where disclosure is permitted 55Q. Regulation 55P does not apply to a disclosure (a) by a person specified in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) of that regulation if the disclosure is made for the purpose of discharging any function or exercising any power under the Law, whether the function or power is of the person disclosing the information or of the Supervisory Authority; (b) by any person where the disclosure is Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 55R c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 61 (i) made to a competent authority or a Supervisory Authority; (ii) made in accordance with an order of any Court of competent jurisdiction in the Islands; or (iii) required or permitted by the Law or any other law; or (c) by a person other than the Supervisory Authority, where the disclosure is made with the written consent of the Supervisory Authority and could lawfully have been made by it.

Administrative Fines 55R. Power to impose administrative fines 55R. (1) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may impose an administrative fine, under regulation 55S, on the DNFBP if it contravenes a provision of these Regulations.

(2) Where a DNFBP contravenes a prescribed provision in Column 1 of the Table in Schedule 2, the categories of breach in Column 2 of the Table in Schedule 2, shall be prescribed as minor, serious or very serious and the breach may be proceeded with under regulation 55S. (3) A Supervisory Authority may issue guidance on the enforcement of administrative fines for a breach prescribed as minor under these regulations.

55S. Fine amounts

55S. (1) For a breach prescribed as minor the fine is five thousand dollars. (1A) Notwithstanding section 43 of the Interpretation Act (1995 Revision), where the fine under paragraph (1) is imposed as an administrative fine by the Supervisory Authority, the fine is the exact amount stated in paragraph (1) and not the maximum amount. (2) For a breach prescribed as minor, a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may impose one or more continuing fines of five thousand dollars each, in addition to the fine already imposed for the breach (the initial fine), at intervals it decides, until the earliest of the following occurs (a) the breach stops or is remedied; (b) payment of the initial fine and continuing fines imposed for the breach; or (c) the total of the initial fine and continuing fines for the breach reaches twenty thousand dollars. (3) For a breach prescribed as serious, the fine is a single fine of (a) fifty thousand dollars for an individual; or (b) one hundred thousand dollars for a body corporate. (4) For a breach prescribed as very serious, the fine is a single fine of (a) one hundred thousand dollars for an individual; or (b) two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for a body corporate. (5) For breaches prescribed as serious or very serious the Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP has a discretion to decide whether to impose a fine and the amount of the fine, taking into consideration the criteria under regulations 55V, 55X and 55Y.

55T. Limitation period

55T. (1) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP shall not impose an administrative fine after the expiration of the following period from the date on which it became aware of the breach (a) six months for a breach prescribed as minor; or (b) two years for a breach prescribed as serious or very serious. (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a Supervisory Authority is deemed to have become aware of the breach when the Supervisory Authority first received information from which the breach could have reasonably been inferred.

55U. Relationship with penalties

55U. (1) Where a breach of a prescribed provision is an offence, a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may, subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) (a) impose an administrative fine in accordance with these Regulations; or (b) recommend to the Director of Public Prosecutions that the contravention be prosecuted as an offence. (2) Where a breach of a prescribed provision is an offence, the imposition of an administrative fine for the breach shall not preclude a prosecution for the breach where the administrative fine remains unpaid after twenty-eight days of the issue of a fine notice. (3) Where a breach of a prescribed provision is prosecuted as an offence, the prosecution of the breach as an offence shall preclude a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP from imposing an administrative fine in accordance with these Regulations. (4) Where a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP commences proceedings for a breach of a prescribed provision by imposing an administrative fine, the payment of the administrative fine within twenty-eight days of the issue of a fine notice constitutes a discharge from liability for conviction for a breach of a prescribed provision that is an offence.

55V. Principles for making fine decision

55V. (1) In making a decision under regulation 55S(5), a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP shall consider any relevant factors including the following criteria (a) the criteria under regulations 55X and 55Y after applying any prescribed relative weight that must be given to the criteria; and (b) the following principles, in the following order of importance (i) firstly, the disgorgement principle; (ii) secondly, the disciplinary principle; and (iii) thirdly, the deterrence principle. (2) In exercising a fine discretion under regulation 55S(5), the principles under paragraph (1)(b) shall prevail over the criteria prescribed under regulations 55X and 55Y. (3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may consider the criteria under regulation 55X or 55Y and reduce the amount of a fine. (4) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(a), a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may consider a particular criteria to the extent it considers the criteria relevant to making the decision. (5) In this regulation deterrence principle means the principle applied to deter DNFBPs which carry out relevant financial business and connected persons from breaching prescribed provisions; disciplinary principle means the principle applied to punish intentional, reckless or negligent breaches of prescribed provisions; and disgorgement principle means the principle applied to ensure that (a) DNFBPs which carry out relevant financial business and connected persons do not gain (including by avoiding losses) from breaching prescribed provisions; and (b) persons mentioned in paragraph (a) disgorge all such gains. Discretionary fine criteria 55W. Application of discretionary fine criteria 55W. For the purposes of regulation 55S(5) and 55V(1)(a), the criteria for exercising fine discretions shall apply when (a) issuing breach notices; (b) considering or reconsidering matters under regulation 55ZD(2) or 55ZO(2)(b); and Regulation 55X Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 64 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (c) imposing discretionary fines. 55X. Criteria in relation to both fine and amount 55X. (1) The following are the criteria for exercising fine discretions under regulation 55W (a) the nature and seriousness of the breach; (b) the degree of the party's inadvertence, intent or negligence in committing the breach; (c) where the breach is a continuing one, its duration; (d) the measures or precautions the party took to prevent the breach; (e) the measures or precautions that a reasonable person in the party's position, acting prudently and exercising due diligence, would have taken to prevent the breach; (f) whether the breach was due to (i) reasonable reliance on information given to the party; or (ii) a cause beyond the party's control, including, for example, someone else's act or default or an accident; (g) the degree of difficulty in detecting the breach; (h) evidence of intent by the party to conceal the breach or mislead the Supervisory Authority; (i) the party's conduct after becoming aware of the breach, including (i) whether and how quickly the party brought the breach to the attention of the Supervisory Authority; and (ii) the party's efforts to remedy the breach or prevent its reoccurrence; (j) any financial or other damage or loss or other harm done or caused by the breach, including, for example, to (i) the party's creditors, customers, investors, policyholders or shareholders; or (ii) the performance of the functions of the Supervisory Authority; (k) whether, before or after the breach, there was a change to the party's business or affairs that affects or may affect the consequences of the breach for the party, including, for example, the party's ability to pay a fine; (l) where the Supervisory Authority previously imposed a fine on the party for a similar breach, the amount of that fine; and (m) the party's history of compliance with these Regulations and similar laws in other jurisdictions in the five years before the breach. (2) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP shall only take into account the party's compliance with and breaches of those laws in other jurisdictions of Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 55Y c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 65 which it is aware or made aware by the party, when considering the criteria under paragraph (1)(m). (3) Paragraph (2) applies even if no punishment was imposed or no other action relating to the breach was taken under those laws in other jurisdictions. 55Y. Additional criteria in relation to fine amount 55Y. In deciding the amount of a fine when exercising fine discretions, the criteria also include (a) the following in relation to the party (i) any circumstances of mitigation that may exist; (ii) resources and ability to pay; and (iii) financial hardship; (b) potential adverse financial consequences on third parties of imposing a fine in the amount proposed; and (c) a circumstance that aggravates, or may tend to aggravate, the breach or its effects. 55Z. Power to discount usual fine to reflect agreement 55Z. (1) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may negotiate with a party to attempt to reach a discount agreement with the party, whether or not it has given a breach notice. (2) Subject to paragraph (3), the Supervisory Authority may discount the usual fine to reflect the fact of the discount agreement and the stage in the fine process under regulations 55ZA, 55ZB, 55ZC, 55ZD, 55ZF and 55ZG at which the agreement was reached. (3) The Supervisory Authority shall not discount any component of the usual fine that represents the application of the disgorgement principle under regulation 55V. (4) In this regulation, usual fine means the amount of the fine the Supervisory Authority decided, or would otherwise have decided (a) before taking into account the discount agreement; and (b) after considering (i) any relevant criteria, including the criteria and principles under regulation 55V; and (ii) the criteria under regulation 55X or 55Y. Regulation 55ZA Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 66 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c General 55ZA. Steps required 55ZA.(1) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may only impose a minor fine or discretionary fine by taking the following steps (a) giving a party a breach notice; (b) where regulation 55ZD applies, complying with that regulation; and (c) giving a party a fine notice. (2) The following exceptions apply in relation to the steps under paragraph (1) where a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP decides to impose a discretionary fine (a) where the party entered into a discount agreement for the breach and the fine is no more than the amount agreed under the agreement, a fine notice may be given without first giving a breach notice; and (b) where a fine is varied on appeal under regulation 55ZO(2), the steps do not apply to the fine as varied. (3) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may only impose a minor fine (continuing) (a) by giving the party a fine notice; and (b) if the relevant minor fine is not stayed. (4) A decision in relation to the imposition of a minor fine, a minor fine (continuing) or a discretionary fine shall be made on the balance of probabilities. 55ZB. Notice containing an inaccuracy 55ZB. A breach notice, rectification notice or fine notice which contains an inaccuracy is only invalid because of the inaccuracy where a party establishes that (a) the inaccuracy was material; and (b) the inaccuracy misled the party. 55ZC. Requirements for breach notice 55ZC.(1) A breach notice shall be dated and state the following (a) the party's name; (b) that the Supervisory Authority proposes to impose a fine on the party for a specified breach that the Supervisory Authority believes the party committed; (c) the prescribed provision for which the fine is proposed to be imposed; (d) the nature of the specified breach; (e) a summary of the facts and circumstances that the Supervisory Authority believes constituted the specified breach; (f) whether the Supervisory Authority proposes to impose (i) a minor fine; or (ii) a discretionary fine, for the specified breach and the amount of the fine; (g) that, for a discretionary fine, the party may give the Supervisory Authority a reply within the reply period under paragraph (2); (h) that, for a minor fine, the party shall rectify the breach and submit a rectification notice to the Supervisory Authority indicating that the breach has been rectified within thirty days of receipt of the notice. (2) The reply period shall end no less than thirty days after the giving of a breach notice. 55ZD. Duty to consider reply 55ZD.(1) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP shall act in accordance with paragraph (2) where (a) a breach notice is given for a discretionary fine; (b) the reply period ends; and (c) a reply is given. (2) Where paragraph (1) applies, the Supervisory Authority under paragraph (1) shall (a) reconsider whether it still holds the belief stated in the breach notice, in light of all the matters raised in the reply concerning that belief; and (b) where a breach notice was for a discretionary fine, consider the matters raised in the reply to the extent that the matters raised are relevant to exercising fine discretions. 55ZE. Imposition of a minor fine or minor fine (continuing) 55ZE.(1) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP which issues a breach notice for a minor fine shall impose a fine in accordance with regulation 55S(1). (2) Where a breach notice is issued for a minor fine and a Supervisory Authority is not satisfied that the breach was rectified within thirty days of receipt of the notice, the Supervisory Authority may impose a fine in accordance with regulation 55S (2). (3) Where a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP imposes a minor fine or a minor fine (continuing), it may decide that the fine is payable immediately on the giving of a fine notice or within a particular period stated in the fine notice. Regulation 55ZF Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 68 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c Imposing a fine 55ZF. Decision about fine 55ZF.(1) This regulation applies at the end of the reply period in relation to a breach notice where (a) no reply is given; or (b) a reply is given and a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP has complied with regulation 55ZD. (2) Repealed by regulation 18 of the Anti-Money Laundering (Amendment) Regulations, 2020 (SL 2 of 2020). (3) Where a breach notice is issued for a discretionary fine, the Supervisory Authority may exercise fine discretions. (4) The amount of a discretionary fine shall not be more than the amount stated in the breach notice. (5) Where a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP imposes a fine, it may decide that the fine is payable immediately on the giving of a fine notice or within a particular period stated in the fine notice. (6) Where a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP decides not to impose a fine, it shall give the party notice of the decision within fifteen days after the end of the reply period. 55ZG. Requirements for fine notice 55ZG.(1) A fine notice shall be dated and state the following (a) the party's name; (b) that the Supervisory Authority has imposed a specified fine on the party; (c) the amount of the fine; and (d) when the fine shall be paid. (2) Where the specified fine is a minor fine, the fine notice under paragraph (1) shall also state (a) the prescribed provision for which the fine is imposed; (b) a description of the breach; and (3) Where the specified fine is a minor fine (continuing), the fine notice under paragraph (1) shall also state (a) the date of the fine notice given for the relevant minor fine; (b) if a rectification notice was given within thirty days of the issue of a breach notice for the relevant minor fine, the reasons why the Supervisory Authority is not satisfied that the breach was rectified within thirty days of the issue of the breach notice; and Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 55ZH c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 69 (c) that the party may, within thirty days after receiving the fine notice, apply to the relevant person or body within the Supervisory Authority to review the decision to impose the fine. (4) Where the specified fine is a discretionary fine, the fine notice under paragraph (1) shall also state (a) the prescribed provision for which the fine is imposed; (b) a description of the breach; (c) the reasons for the way in which fine discretions were exercised; and (d) that the party may, within thirty days after receiving the fine notice, apply to the Grand Court for leave to appeal against the decision to impose the fine, the amount of the fine or both. Internal review of minor fines by a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP 55ZH. Application to relevant person or body within the Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP for review 55ZH.(1) A party who has received a fine notice for a minor fine or minor fine (continuing) may apply to the Supervisory Authority designated for the DNFBP for the relevant person or body within the Supervisory Authority to review the original decision. (2) An application under paragraph (1) shall (a) be made within thirty days from the date of receipt of the fine notice; and (b) shall contain (i) in respect of the applicant (A) the name of the applicant; (B) the physical address of the applicant; and (C) the address of the applicant; and (ii) in respect of the particulars of the application (A) the prescribed provision set out in the fine notice; (B) the grounds on which the applicant relies for the review; and (C) the facts and circumstances on which the applicant relies for the review. 55ZI. No stay of original decision 55ZI. An application for review under regulation 55ZH does not stay the operation of the original decision. Regulation 55ZJ Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 70 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c 55ZJ. Decision by relevant person or body within the Supervisory Authority upon review 55ZJ.(1) The relevant person or body within a Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP shall, within twenty days after receiving an application for review under regulation 55ZH reconsider the original decision and decide whether to affirm or set aside the original decision. (2) The relevant person or body within the Supervisory Authority shall, within ten days after making a decision on the application, give the party notice of its decision. (3) Where the relevant person or body within the Supervisory Authority affirms the original decision, the notice of the decision on the application for review shall state (a) the reasons for the decision; and (b) that the party may apply to the Grand Court for judicial review of the decision. (4) Where the relevant person or body within the Supervisory Authority sets aside the original decision, the original decision is deemed to have never been made. (5) The appropriate person within the Supervisory Authority who made the original decision may make written representations to the relevant person or body within the Supervisory Authority concerning an application for review of the original decision, but shall not otherwise participate in any discussion, decision, debate or vote of the relevant person or body concerning the review. Appeal against discretionary fines to Grand Court 55ZK. Application to the Grand Court for leave to appeal 55ZK.(1) A party who receives a fine notice for a discretionary fine may apply to the Grand Court within thirty days after receiving the fine notice for leave to appeal against the original decision. (2) The Grand Court may only grant leave to appeal under this regulation where (a) the party has grounds for seeking judicial review of the decision; or (b) the decision was made with a lack of proportionality or was not rational. (3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a party may not apply for leave to appeal against the original decision if the party entered into a discount agreement for the breach and the fine is no more than the amount agreed to in the discount agreement. Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 55ZL c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 71 55ZL. Application of Grand Court Rules and practice directions on judicial review 55ZL.(1) The Grand Court Rules (2023 Revision) and the Court's practice directions about judicial review apply to an appeal, with necessary changes, as if the appeal were an application for judicial review. (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the Court's rules about alternative dispute resolution do not apply to the appeal. 55ZM. Security for costs 55ZM. A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may apply to the Grand Court for (a) an order that the appellant provide sufficient security for costs; and (b) a stay of the appeal proceedings until the security is provided. 55ZN. Stay of original decision only by application 55ZN.(1) An appeal does not stay the operation of an original decision. (2) The Grand Court may, on an appellant's application, order that the fine imposed by an original decision be stayed to secure the effectiveness of the appeal. (3) The stay ordered by the Grand Court under paragraph (2) (a) may be given on conditions that the Grand Court considers appropriate; (b) operates for the period fixed by the Grand Court; and (c) may be amended or revoked by the Grand Court. (4) The period of a stay shall not extend past when the Grand Court determines the appeal. 55ZO. Hearing and outcome 55ZO.(1) An appeal may only be determined on the evidence on which the Supervisory Authority exercised the relevant fine discretions. (2) After hearing an appeal, the Grand Court may (a) affirm, set aside or vary the original decision; or (b) set aside the original decision and remit the matter to the Supervisory Authority for it to reconsider subject to such directions as the Court considers fit. (3) The following apply if the Grand Court's decision is to affirm the original decision or to vary it in a way that a fine is still imposed (a) the Grand Court's decision is (other than in relation to regulations 55ZA, 55ZH and 55ZK) deemed to have been the original decision; Regulation 55ZP Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Page 72 Revised as at 31st December, 2022 c (b) the Grand Court may, at the Supervisory Authority's request, give judgment against the party for all or any part of the fine that continues to be owing, and for interest; and (c) the request of the Supervisory Authority under subparagraph (b) may be made during the appeal, when the Grand Court's decision is handed down or at any later time on the tendering of a certificate under regulation 55ZU(2)(d) about the amount owing. (4) Where the Grand Court sets aside the original decision and does not remit the matter to the Supervisory Authority for reconsideration (a) both the fine and interest are deemed to have never been owing; and (b) any minor fine (continuing) imposed for the breach is deemed to have also been set aside and to have never been owed. Fine is a debt to the Crown 55ZP. Fine is a debt to the Crown 55ZP.(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where a fine is not paid by the date stated in the relevant fine notice, the fine becomes a debt owing to the Crown. (2) The following factors affect whether the fine in the fine notice becomes a debt owing to the Crown under paragraph (1) (a) whether the fine was set aside on review under regulation 55ZJ or on appeal under regulation 55ZO; and (b) whether the fine was varied on appeal under regulation 55ZO. (3) Where the fine under the fine notice was varied on appeal under regulation 55ZO, the varied fine becomes a debt owing to the Crown where the fine is not paid by the date stated in the order of the Grand Court. 55ZQ. Interest on fines 55ZQ.(1) Interest accrues at a rate of five per cent annually while all or any part of a fine continues to be owing, starting on the day immediately after the fine becomes a debt to the Crown and ending on the day the fine is paid in full. (2) Interest under paragraph (1) accrues daily and as compound interest. (3) Interest under paragraph (1) is a debt owing to the Crown. (4) The accruing of interest applies even while the fine is stayed. (5) Payments relating to the fine are to be applied to the interest first. (6) This regulation is subject to any setting aside or variation of the fine in a review applied for under regulation 55ZH or an appeal. Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 55ZR c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 73 55ZR. Payment of more than one fine 55ZR. Where more than one fine is imposed on a party, payments for the fines are to be applied in the order in which the fines and interest became owing. 55ZS. Enforcement 55ZS.(1) The Crown may recover in a civil proceeding, as a debt owing to the Crown, the unpaid amount of a fine or interest, or both. (2) Paragraph (1) does not apply while the fine is stayed. (3) A proceeding to recover a debt under this regulation does not prevent (a) interest continuing to accrue on the total owing; or (b) where the party is a body corporate, the Crown enforcing the fine by serving a winding up notice for the debt.

Miscellaneous 55ZT. Electronic notices by the Supervisory Authority 55ZT.(1) A Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP may give a party a notice for any purpose under these Regulations by sending it to (a) the address that the party last provided the Supervisory Authority with; (b) where the party is a body corporate (either in its own right or as a trustee of a trust), the address that the body corporate last provided to the Supervisory Authority, of (i) any of its directors or members; or (ii) its registered office provider; or (c) where the party is a partnership, the address that the partnership last provided to the Supervisory Authority of (i) any of its partners; or (ii) its registered office provider (if the party has a registered office). (2) In this regulation partner does not include a limited partner of a limited partnership; and registered office provider means the person who provides or maintains the party's registered office as required by law.

55ZU. Evidentiary provisions 55ZU.(1) A signature purporting to be the signature of anyone acting on behalf of the Supervisory Authority designated for a DNFBP is evidence of the signature it purports to be, unless the contrary is proved.

(2) A certificate signed, or purporting to be signed, by anyone acting on the Supervisory Authority's behalf stating a matter as follows, is evidence (a) that a stated document is a copy of a notice given under this Part; (b) that an address stated in the copy was, when the notice was given to its stated recipient, the recipient's address under regulation 55ZT; (c) that on a stated day the recipient was given the notice in a stated way; or (d) that a fine of a stated amount is owing by a stated person.

PART XIII - Offences, Repeal, Savings and Transitional 56. Offences 56. (1) A person who contravenes these Regulations commits an offence and is liable (a) on summary conviction, to a fine of five hundred thousand dollars; or (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine and to imprisonment for two years. (2) In determining whether a person has complied with any of the requirements of these Regulations (a) a court shall take into account any relevant supervisory or regulatory guidance which applies to that person; and (b) a court may take into account any other relevant guidance issued by a body in the Islands that regulates, or is representative of, any trade, profession, business or employment carried on by that person. (3) In proceedings against a person for an offence under these Regulations, it shall be a defence for the person to show that that person took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence. (4) In determining whether to exercise any of its enforcement powers for a breach of these Regulations, the Supervisory Authority shall take into account (a) these Regulations; and (b) any applicable supervisory or regulatory guidance.

57. Offences by bodies corporate, partnerships and unincorporated associations 57. (1) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity the person, as well as the body corporate, commits that offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision) Regulation 58 c Revised as at 31st December, 2022 Page 75 (2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by the members, paragraph (1) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if that member were a director of a body corporate. (3) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by a partnership, or by an unincorporated association other than a partnership, is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, a partner in the partnership or a person concerned in the management or control of the association, the partner or person, as well as the partnership or association, commits that offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly. 58. Repeal and savings 58. (1) Subject to paragraph (2) the Money Laundering Regulations (2015 Revision) are repealed. (2) All proceedings in respect of offences committed against the Regulations repealed in paragraph (1) prior to the coming into force of these Regulations may be commenced or continued as if these Regulations had not come into force. 59.

Transitional 59. These Regulations do not apply to a person carrying on relevant financial business, in relation to the activities described at items 19 and 20 of Schedule 6 of the Law, until 31st May, 2018. Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (2023 Revision)
