Part II - Directions 3. (1) The Financial Reporting Authority may, in relation to any country, give a direction to a relevant person mentioned in section 4 if any of the conditions specified in section 5 are satisfied. De-listing of designated persons Power to give a direction Proliferation Financing (Prohibition) Law (2017 Revision) 10 (2) A direction given by the Financial Reporting Authority may make different provisions in relation to different descriptions or classes of relevant persons. 4. A direction under this Law may be given to any of the following relevant persons- (a) a particular person operating in the financial sector; (b) any description or class of persons operating in the financial sector; or (c) all persons operating in the financial sector. 5. (1) The conditions referred to in section 3(1) with respect to a country are that- (a) the Financial Action Task Force, or such other international or inter-governmental organisation has advised that measures should be taken in relation to the country because of the risks of proliferation activities being carried on - (i) in the country; (ii) by the government of the country; or (iii) by persons resident or incorporated in the country; (b) the Financial Reporting Authority reasonably believes that there is a risk that proliferation activities are being carried on- (i) in the country; (ii) by the government of the country; or (iii) by persons resident or incorporated in the country, and that this poses a significant risk to the interests of the Islands or the United Kingdom; or (c) the Financial Reporting Authority reasonably believes that- (i) the development or production of nuclear, radiological, biological or chemical weapons in the country or systems for their delivery; or (ii) the doing in the country of anything that facilitates the development or production of any of the weapons referred to in subparagraph (i), poses a significant risk to the interests of the Islands or the United Kingdom. (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) and (c), the question as to whether or not an activity mentioned in that subsection constitutes a significant risk to the Islands or the United Kingdom is a matter to be determined by the Financial Reporting Authority acting on the directions of the Governor. Persons to whom a direction may be given Conditions for giving a direction Proliferation Financing (Prohibition) Law (2017 Revision) 11 (3) The Financial Reporting Authority shall, in accordance with subsection (4), publish a list of any persons or countries to whom directions shall apply and shall disseminate such list in such media as it considers appropriate. (4) The Cabinet may make regulations prescribing the matters of which the Financial Reporting Authority must be satisfied before listing a person under subsection (3). (5) In addition to publishing a list under subsection (3), the Financial Reporting Authority shall provide such list to the Monetary Authority and the department in Government charged with the responsibility for monitoring compliance with anti-money laundering and combating the financing of terrorism measures for designated non-financial businesses and professions. (6) The Financial Reporting Authority may, in accordance with regulations, revoke a listing if the Financial Reporting Authority is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (1) no longer apply. Part III- Requirements in Relation to Directions 6. (1) Where the Financial Reporting Authority gives a direction pursuant to section 3, it may impose any of the requirements specified in sections 7, 8, 9 and 10 in relation to transactions or business relationships with- (a) a person carrying on business in the country concerned; (b) the government of the country; or (c) a person resident or incorporated in the country. (2) A direction may further impose requirements in relation to- (a) a particular person under subsection (1); (b) a description or class of persons under subsection (1); or (c) all persons under subsection (1). (3) A direction may make different provision in relation to- (a) different descriptions or classes of listed persons; and (b) different descriptions of transaction or business relationship. (4) The requirements imposed by a direction must be proportionate, having regard to the conditions mentioned in section 5(1)(a) or the risk mentioned in section 5(1)(b) or (c), to the interests of the Islands or the United Kingdom. 7. (1) A direction given by the Financial Reporting Authority may require a relevant person to undertake enhanced customer due diligence measures- Requirements imposed by the Financial Reporting Authority Customer due diligence Proliferation Financing (Prohibition) Law (2017 Revision) 12 (a) before entering into a transaction or business relationship with a listed person; and (b) during a business relationship with that listed person. (2) The direction may do either or both of the following- (a) impose a general obligation to undertake enhanced customer due diligence measures; (b) require a relevant person to undertake specific measures identified or described in the direction. (3) A direction requiring a relevant person to undertake enhanced customer due diligence measures pursuant to subsection (1) or perform any requirement or undertaking under subsection (2) is without prejudice to the relevant person's obligations or liabilities in relation to the same matters, where applicable, under the Proceeds of Crime Law (2017 Revision), the Money Laundering Regulations (2015 Revision), the Terrorism Law (2017 Revision) or the Terrorism (United Nations Measures) (Overseas Territories) Order, 2001. (4) For the purposes of this section enhanced customer due diligence measures means measures to- (a) establish the identity of the listed person; (b) obtain information about the listed person, his business and source of his funds and economic resources; and (c) assess the risk of the listed person being involved in proliferation. 8. (1) A direction given by the Financial Reporting Authority may require a relevant person to undertake enhanced ongoing monitoring of any business relationship with a listed person. (2) The direction may do either or both of the following- (a) impose a general obligation to undertake enhanced ongoing monitoring; (b) require a relevant person to undertake specific measures identified or described in the direction. (3) For the purposes of this section, enhanced ongoing monitoring of a business relationship means- (a) keeping up-to-date information and documents obtained for the purposes of enhanced customer due diligence measures; and (b) scrutinising transactions undertaken during the course of the business relationship and, where appropriate, the source of funds and economic resources for those transactions, to ascertain 2017 Revision 2015 Revision 2017 Revision Ongoing monitoring Proliferation Financing (Prohibition) Law (2017 Revision) 13 whether the transactions are consistent with the relevant person's knowledge of the listed person and the business of that listed person. 9. (1) A direction given by the Financial Reporting Authority may require a relevant person to provide such information and documents relating to transactions and business relationships with listed persons as may be specified in the direction. (2) A direction imposing the requirement referred to in subsection (1) shall specify how the direction is to be complied with, including - (a) the person to whom the information and the documents are to be provided; and (b) the period within which, or intervals at which, the information and documents are to be provided. (3) The power conferred by this section is not exercisable in relation to information or documents in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege could be maintained in legal proceedings. (4) The exercise of the power conferred by this section and the provision of information under it is not otherwise subject to any restriction on the disclosure of information, whether imposed by statute or otherwise.

10. Where the Financial Reporting Authority gives a direction, it may require a relevant person not to enter into or continue to participate in-

- (a) a specified transaction or business relationship with a listed person;
- (b) a specified description of transactions or business relationships with a listed person; or
- (c) any transaction or business relationship with a listed person.

Part IV - Procedures and Licensing in Relation to Directions

11. (1) A direction that is given to-

- (a) a description or class of persons operating in the financial sector; or
- (b) all persons operating in the financial sector, shall be contained in an order made by the Financial Reporting Authority and shall, subject to subsection (3), have effect from the date the order is made. (3) If, following the laying of the order, the Legislative Assembly fails to approve the order within twenty-eight days from the date of laying, the order shall cease to have effect. (4) An order that ceases to have effect in accordance with subsection (3) shall not affect anything done under the order. (5) In calculating the period specified in subsection (3), account shall not be taken of the period when the Legislative Assembly is prorogued or dissolved. (6) The order under subsection (1) shall be published in the Gazette. (7) The Financial Reporting Authority may vary or revoke a direction at any time by order. (8) The Financial Reporting Authority shall forthwith transmit a copy of the order under subsection (7) which seeks to revoke an order made under subsection (2) to the Attorney General who shall as soon as practicable lay the order before the Legislative Assembly for approval. (9) An order, if not previously revoked and whether or not varied, ceases to have effect at the end of the period of one year beginning with the day on which it was made but this is without prejudice to the making of a further direction. (10) Where the order is varied or ceases to have effect, whether on revocation or otherwise, the Financial Reporting Authority shall take such steps as it considers appropriate to publicise that fact.

12. (1) This section applies in relation to a direction that is given to a particular person. (2) Where the Financial Reporting Authority gives a direction, it shall give notice of the direction to that particular person. (3) The direction, if not previously revoked and whether or not varied, ceases to have effect at the end of the period of one year beginning with the day on which the direction is given. (4) The application of subsection (3) is without prejudice to the giving of a further direction by the Financial Reporting Authority. Specific directions: notification and duration of direction Proliferation Financing (Prohibition) Law (2017 Revision) 15 (5) The Financial Reporting Authority may vary or revoke the direction at any time. (6) Where the direction to a particular person is varied or ceases to have effect, whether on revocation or otherwise, the Financial Reporting Authority shall give notice of that fact to that particular person.

13. (1) A relevant person may apply to the Financial Reporting Authority, in such form as the Financial Reporting Authority may specify, for a licence exempting him from the requirements of the direction. (2) The applicant shall provide such information and documents as the Financial Reporting Authority may require in determining the application. (3) A licence granted under this section may be- (a) general or granted to a description or class of persons or to a particular person; (b) subject to conditions as the Financial Reporting Authority may specify in the licence; or (c) of indefinite duration or subject to an expiry date. (4) The Financial Reporting Authority may at any time vary or revoke a licence issued under this section. (5) Where the Financial Reporting Authority grants, varies or revokes a licence, it shall- (a) in the case of a licence granted to a particular person, give notice of the grant, variation or revocation to that particular person; and (b) in the case of a general licence or a licence granted to a description or class of persons, take such steps as it considers appropriate to publicise the grant, variation or revocation of the licence.

Part V - Enforcement: Information Powers

14. (1) An enforcement officer may, by notice to a relevant person, require the relevant person to- (a) provide information as may be specified in the notice; or (b) produce documents as may be so specified, in such form and verified or authenticated in such manner as may be required by the enforcement officer. 17 (2) An enforcement officer may take copies of, or make extracts from, any document found pursuant to subsection (1). (3) An enforcement officer may exercise powers under this section only if the information or document sought to be obtained is reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the Financial Reporting Authority of its functions under this Law. (4) In this section, premises means any premises other than premises used only as a dwelling.

(1) A magistrate or justice of the peace may issue a warrant under this section if he is satisfied, on information on oath given by an enforcement officer, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any set of conditions specified in subsection (2), (3) or (4) is satisfied. (2) The first set of conditions is that- (a) there is on the premises specified in the warrant, a document in relation to which a requirement could be imposed under section 14(1)(b); and (b) if the requirement under section 14(1)(b) were to be imposed- (i) it would not be complied with; or (ii) the document to which it relates would be removed, tampered with or destroyed. (3) The second set of conditions is that- (a) a person on whom a requirement has been imposed under section 14(1)(b) has failed, wholly or in part, to comply with it; and (b) there is on the premises specified in the warrant, a document that has been required to be produced. (4) The third set of conditions is that- (a) an enforcement officer has been obstructed in the exercise of a power under section 15; and (b) there is on the premises specified in the warrant a document that could be inspected under section 15(1)(c).

(5) A magistrate or justice of the peace may issue a warrant under this section if he is satisfied on information on oath given by an enforcement officer that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that- (a) an offence under this Law has been, is being or is about to be committed by a relevant person; and Entry to premises under warrant Proliferation Financing (Prohibition) Law (2017 Revision) 18 (b) there is on the premises specified in the warrant a document relevant to whether that offence has been, is being or is about to be committed. (6) A warrant issued under this section shall authorise an enforcement officer to - (a) enter the premises specified in the warrant; (b) search the premises and take possession of anything that appears to be a document specified in the warrant or to take, in relation to that document, any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving it or preventing interference with it; (c) take copies of, or extracts from, any document specified in the warrant; (d) require any person on the premises to provide an explanation of any document which appears to be of the kind specified in the warrant or to state where the document may be found; and (e) use such force as may reasonably be necessary. 17. (1) This section applies in relation to the powers conferred by sections 14, 15 and 16. (2) The powers referred to in subsection (1) are not exercisable in relation to information or documents in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege could be maintained in legal proceedings. (3) The exercise of the powers referred to in subsection (1) and the provision of information or production of documents under those powers is not otherwise subject to any restriction on the disclosure of information, whether imposed by statute or otherwise. 18. (1) If on an application made by an enforcement officer it appears to the Grand Court that a person (the information defaulter) has failed to do something that he was required to do under section 14(1), the Grand Court may make an order under this section. (2) An order made under this section may require the information defaulter to do either or both of the following- (a) to do the thing that he had failed to do within such period as may be specified in the order; (b) to take such steps to remedy the consequences of the failure as may be so specified. (3) If the information defaulter is a body corporate, a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons that is not a partnership, the order may require any officer of the body corporate, partnership or unincorporated body who is, Restrictions on powers Failure to comply with information requirement Proliferation Financing (Prohibition) Law (2017 Revision) 19 wholly or partly responsible for the failure, to meet such costs of the application as may be specified in the order. Part VI - Enforcement: Civil Penalties 19. (1) The Financial Reporting Authority may, subject to subsection (2), impose a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate on a person who fails to comply with a requirement imposed by- (a) a direction under this Law; or (b) a condition of a licence under section 13, and for this purpose, appropriate means effective, proportionate and dissuasive. (2) The Financial Reporting Authority shall not impose a penalty if it is satisfied that the person took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to ensure compliance with the requirement. (3) In deciding whether to impose a penalty for failure to comply with a requirement, the Financial Reporting Authority shall consider whether the person followed any relevant guidance which was at the time- (a) issued by the Financial Reporting Authority or by a professional body whose members, whether wholly or partly, operate in the financial sector; and (b) published in a manner approved by the Financial Reporting Authority as suitable in its opinion to bring the guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it. (4) A person on whom a penalty is imposed under this section is not liable to be proceeded against for an offence under section 22 in respect of the same failure. (5) A penalty imposed by the Financial Reporting Authority pursuant to this section shall not exceed forty thousand dollars, unless such higher penalty is presented to and confirmed by the Grand Court. (6) Where the Financial Reporting Authority presents a higher penalty to the Grand Court for confirmation, the Grand Court may- (a) confirm the penalty imposed by the Financial Reporting Authority; or (b) vary the penalty as it considers appropriate, having regard to the seriousness of the failure. (7) A penalty imposed by the Financial Reporting Authority under this section is payable to the Government for its use and is recoverable in civil Power to impose civil penalties Proliferation Financing (Prohibition) Law (2017 Revision) 20 proceedings by the Financial Reporting Authority as a debt due to the Government. 20. (1) The Financial Reporting Authority shall, before imposing a penalty against a person under section 19, give notice to the person- (a) stating its intention to impose the penalty; (b) stating the reasons for the intention to impose the penalty; (c) stating the amount proposed to be imposed as the penalty; and (d) inviting the person to make any representation he wishes. (2) A notice issued under subsection (1) shall require the person to whom it relates to submit his representation, if any, within a period of twenty-eight days from the date indicated on the notice. (3) Where the Financial Reporting Authority receives a representation under this section, it shall consider the representation and- (a) confirm the amount of the proposed penalty; (b) vary the penalty to be imposed in such manner as it considers fit; or (c) withdraw the penalty proposed to be imposed. (4) Where the Financial Reporting Authority varies or withdraws a proposed penalty under paragraph (b) or (c), as the case may be, it may take further steps, if any, in consequence of the variation or withdrawal as it considers appropriate. (5) The Financial Reporting Authority shall notify the person of its decision under subsection (3) and, where it varies or withdraws the proposed penalty, of the further steps, if any, it has taken in relation to the person. (6) The Financial Reporting Authority shall, by the notice under subsection (5), advise the person of his right of appeal under section 21. (7) Where the Financial Reporting Authority imposes a penalty under subsection (3)(a) or (b), it shall require the person to pay to the Financial Reporting Authority the penalty imposed within such period as the Financial Reporting Authority may determine. (8) Where the Financial Reporting Authority varies a penalty under subsection (3)(b), the application of subsection (7) is without prejudice to any further steps that the Financial Reporting Authority may take under subsection (5). A notice issued under this section may, at the written request of the person against whom it is issued, be extended by the Financial Reporting Authority for a period not exceeding an additional seven days.

21. (1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Financial Reporting Authority to impose a penalty under section 20 may appeal the decision to the Grand Court. (2) On an appeal brought under subsection (1), the Grand Court may- (a) set aside the decision of the Financial Reporting Authority; (b) confirm the decision of the Financial Reporting Authority; or (c) vary the decision of the Financial Reporting Authority in a manner it considers fit.

Part VII- Enforcement: Offences

22. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who fails to comply with a requirement imposed by a direction under this Law commits an offence. (2) A person has not committed an offence under subsection (1) if he took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to ensure compliance with the requirement. (3) In deciding whether a person has committed an offence under this section, the court shall consider whether the person followed any relevant guidance that was at the time- (a) issued by the Financial Reporting Authority or by a professional body whose members, whether wholly or partly, operate in the financial sector; and (b) published in a manner approved by the Financial Reporting Authority or other supervisory body or by the professional body as suitable in its opinion to bring the guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it. (4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine of fifty thousand dollars; or (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine of seventy thousand dollars or imprisonment for a term of three years, or to both.
